COUNTY PROPERTY TAXES & INCENTIVES

In South Carolina, only local governments levy property taxes. There is no state tax on real or personal property. In addition, there is no state or local tax on inventories or intangibles in South Carolina. A company's property tax liability is a function of:

Property Value (less depreciation) x Assessment Ratio x Millage.

5-Year Property Tax Abatement

By law, manufacturers (investing $50,000 or more) and distribution or corporate headquarters facilities (investing $50,000 or more and creating 75 new jobs in year 1) are entitled to a five-year property tax abatement from county operating taxes. This abatement usually represents an offset of up to 20% to 50% of the total millage, depending on the county. The abatement does not include the school portion of the local millage.

The tax abatement on investment is in effect for five years only. In year 6, the abatement terminates, and the property is taxed at the millage rate in effect. The five-year property tax abatement is not available for property placed under a Fee-in-Lieu agreement.

Fee-in-lieu of Property Taxes (FILOT)

The legislature enacted a fee-in-lieu of property tax statute for industries considering an expansion or move to South Carolina. Property potentially subject to the fee-in-lieu usually consists of land, improvements to land, new building construction, and machinery and equipment located in the project. The fee-in-lieu statutes permit qualifying companies (those with a minimum investment of $2.5 million) to negotiate to pay a fee instead of paying typical property taxes. The assessment ratio may be negotiated from 10.5% down to as low as 6% on property, machinery and equipment, depending on the size of the investment for the project.

Multi-County Parks

This discretionary incentive can be made by a county pertaining to specific business properties, enabling the level of job tax credits (JTC) for which the company is eligible to increase. Specifically, an additional $1,000 per net new employee can be added to the current $1,500 JTC per net new employee available in a developed county.
